

Robinson Escott Planning LLP Privacy Policy

This policy explains how Robinson Escott Planning LLP uses the personal information collected from you for the provision of the professional advice you request. It also describes how long that information is kept for and the limited circumstances in which we might disclose it to third parties.

Personal details we hold

Robinson Escott Planning LLP holds two types of personal information which allows us to manage the professional town planning service we provide;

1. Client provided information: clients' contact details including names, postal addresses, email addresses and telephone numbers.
2. Customer contact records – Records of emails and postal interactions.

Length of time information will be held

In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulations, your details will only be kept for the time that your file is active, as soon as a file is closed and we are no longer instructed, details will be removed from our database.

How to access your personal data

If you wish to see full details of the information that Robinson Escott Planning LLP holds in connection with you, you will need to make a subject access request under the General Data Protection Regulations. To initiate a subject access request, email; fiona@replanning.co.uk or call us on 01689 836334

Keeping your details secure

Robinson Escott Planning LLP has a contract with ITRM (our service provider) who provide services for all our back up data and internet service. All the information we have is protected by the latest encryption technology. These systems are regularly audited by ITRM.

Sharing personal information

Your personal information will only be shared with the following as is required by law in the case of the submission of pre-application advice requests, planning applications and planning appeals.

- Local Authorities
- The Planning Inspectorate (Bristol)

In some cases we may have to share your contact details with a third party, this would only be to other professionals who would be required to provide a specific assessment/report to support your planning application or planning appeal.

Robinson Escott Planning LLP Privacy Notice

Robinson Escott Planning LLP have fully committed to adherence of the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) following implementation on the 25th May 2018. In relation to our collection and processing of personal data, please see the below information.
